

The January 29, 2008 Election

Florida's first election of 2008, on January 29th, should be important to most of Estero's registered voters because it includes:

- The Presidential Preference Primary for Both Political Parties, and
- The Comprehensive Property Tax Reform Referenda.

Who can vote On January 29th?

The following persons can vote:

- All voters who are currently registered to vote here in Florida (see the attached list). Please look over the list to identify and inform your year-round residents that are not on the list.
- All "inactive voters" ...unless these voters contact the Supervisor of Elections office to be restored as registered voters they will not receive much important election information... in Estero alone there are 5,200 inactive voters
- All those who register to vote prior to December 31, 2007.

Three Ways You Can Vote

There are three ways you can vote in Florida. Florida makes absentee voting exceptionally easy so you may want to try it even if you expect to be in Florida at the time of the election.

- ABSENTEE VOTING: If you and your family will not be in Florida on January 29th or prefer to vote by absentee you can easily vote by absentee by calling (239) LEE-VOTE (533-8683). The Supervisor of Elections will take your absentee ballot requests over the phone in less than five minutes and mail the ballots to you wherever you want them sent. Call now so that postage delays will not prevent your vote from counting. In addition the Supervisor can sign up you and all the registered voters in your family for absentee ballots for all the elections during the next 12 months.
- EARLY VOTING: Starting Monday, January 14th through Saturday, January 26th you may cast your vote at the Supervisor of Elections Office, 24951 Old US 41, Suite 10 in Bonita Springs. Their office hours are 10 to 6 Monday through Friday and from 9 to 5 on Saturday. This office is located on the east side of Old 41 just south of where Old 41 terminates into US 41 near the main entrance to Pelican Landing.

- ELECTION DAY VOTING: Or you may vote at your Polling Place, between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. on January 29th.
