'Neptune's Fury' a highlight of day-long community event

MARILYN EDWARDS
Special to The Banner

Joyce Waddell Bailey's "Neptune's Fury" is featured on the official Arts Estero 2009 poster. An award winning artist, Bailey's original digital prints are filled with explosive color.

"Neptune's Fury" is part of a series of oil paintings exploring the nature of hurricanes in general and Hurricane Katrina in particular. It represents the transformation of plant and man-made materials when subjected to the violent forces of nature.

"Neptune's Fury" posters, T-shirts and notecards will be available at Arts Estero 2009, which will be a day filled with art exhibits, music and entertainment. This free event will be held from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m., Saturday, March 28 at Estero Community Park.

Baily resides in Estero. To view more of this talented artist's work, go to www.joyce-waddellbailey.com.

Arts Estero is still looking for artists and volunteers.

"Arts Estero 2009" will be an all-day festival of the arts highlighting local artists, photographers and crafts people. Continuous live entertainment will be performed, both on and off stage, by jazz band MUDDRONE, the Gulf Coast Symphony, The Brooks Brothers and the Breckenridge Singers.

Artisans, you may display and sell their works for a $35 donation. An application form is available on the Estero Council of Community Leaders (ECCCL) Web site at <http://jesteroll.org/new>.

To volunteer your services, you may also go to the ECCCL web site or contact "Arts Estero 2009" Chair Beverly MacNellis at beverlysm@comcast.net, or call 498-0678.

The Estero Council of Community Leaders (ECCCL) is presenting this special event. Partnering with the ECCCL are: the Estero Art League; Estero Historical Society; Friends of South County Regional Library; Inc.; Gulf Coast Symphony; Greater Estero Cultural Arts Council, Inc.; Koreshan State Park; Estero Community Improvement Foundation, Inc.; Estero Community Planning Panel and The Brooks Concerned Citizens.
